

colour his shirt in red

we like him i like that it is simplistic - it appeals to me a lot he needs a fin - possibly he is a shark could he be a mix of colour and black and white he would have a high pitched voice colour in his TShirt

call him Greg

we like the sad eyes he could be naughty - play up and get into trouble in the video it could rain when he is sad and be sunny when he is happy make him turn sad to happy in the video he might be bullied by smaller fish his voice will be important and how he moves colour the outfit in and maybe give him a fin of colour use autism colours - red, yellow, blue and purple black and white lets you decide what colour you would imagine him to be bit sad - could he maybe have a comforter like a seashell teddy we want to hug him call him greg or gregory he looks a bit sad we would like to see him with a family or friends in his video call him Ted

call him Arthur

we want plushies of him!

give him colourful accessories such as a hat or jewellery he could wear odd socks a little bit of colour would be good i like the black and white we would like characters such as Mario, Minecraft or Lego we love Lego! that would really make us stop and watch the video i think he may walk like a penguin he could have baby blue skin i like blue and yellow the sad one is too sad - it makes me sad name him Buddy or Wally the Whale we love him we came straight over because we saw him and wanted to know more maybe a bit too young for me i would think for younger children give him yellow or blue trousers we say he but is he a he - we dont know it will depend how he talks i think he is cute

we love the black and white most things are too colourful and too much to look at so we like the calm of this i think he would have a high pitched voice he could wear a hat with a shark fin on

Put a fin on him so we can decide if it is a shark or a dolphin

Friends make fun of him to start with but when they get him they want to join him give him a cat as a friend purposeful walk

i prefer some colour

its good to smile

high pitched cute voice i prefer the one with the teeth its fun and simple more smiles and colour prefer the happy one glasses

blue top and black trousers maybe make him more like a dinosaur high pitched voice happy and joyful male with a male voice and an ordinary name make him happier without the teeth put on work shoes and make him waddle give him a hat red top and blue trousers with baby blue skin
